NARRATIVE:

Terrance Robinson has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 21. His convictions include assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, multiple cases of burglary, petty theft, possession of marijuana, false bomb report, interfere with public transportation, driving under the influence of alcohol, possession of controlled substances, violation of court orders/contempt of court, reckless driving, several parole violations and failing to report. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a four year term for burglary. Robinson was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 27, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in March 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Robinson qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
